PASSAGE

September 7 - 30, 2023

CHAMPAGNE RECEPTION: THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 5-8PM

a celebration with Z.Z. Wei in conjunction with Seattle's First Thursday Art Walk

"Passage," oil on canvas, 36 x 36 in.

Z.Z. Wei's paintings depict a living landscape, one where brushstrokes breathe with a rhythm that brings harmony between the land and humanity. Over his career, the passion Wei has for the rural landscape has become a metaphor for a more present way of life, removed from the fast-paced urgency of modernity. Wei examines the relationships between the natural environment and infrastructure, often rendering bridges, overpasses, roads and modes of transportation. While these elements symbolically move us ever-forward, time bends in Wei's paintings. There is a longing that sends the viewer on our own journey, where color, sky, fields, and expanses of space allow us to travel into the deepest parts of ourselves.
